TWO CITY TICKETS.

Next Tuesday the citizens of Hickman will be called upon to elect a new Board of Aldermen, Mayor and Police Judge.

There will be two tickets in the
lar with the platform of each party, and it is not necessary to dwell upon what they represent. Both sides have made promises to their constituency—both sides will attempt to win.

The tickets are as follows:

Citizen's Ticket.

For Mayor—Tom Dillon, Sr.

For Police Judge—H. F. Remley.

For Councilmen:

B. G. Hale.

R. M. Isler.

C. G. Schlenker.

C. F. Baltzer.

O. B. Powell.

C. P. Shumate.

Labor Ticket.

For Mayor—H. F. Remley.

For Police Judge—H. F. Remley.

For Councilmen:

Cue Threlkeld.

Percy Jones.

A. A. Faris.

Marion Provow.

Julius Frenz.

Jim Hunt.

Mrs. Jno. Cotton and children are home from a visit with Union City relatives.

SUES CITY OF MAYFIELD.

Dr. C. A. Washburn, the veterinary surgeon at Mayfield, has brought suit against the City of Mayfield the petition having been filed Saturday for $2,000 damages and gives his reasons that it was account of a bad place in the street. The plaintiff states that while driving in a buggy on Eighth street that because of the unsafe and dangerous place in said street, he was thrown from his buggy against the horse hitched to the buggy and thereby seriously, painfully and permanently injured him. He was injured on the left side of his body and on his head.

Yet a little while, and the "I-told-you-so" election forecaster fiend will be with us.

Gov. Willson has offered a reward of $250 for the arrest and conviction of the unknown assassins of Robert J. Bugg at Fulton.

Rev. A. S. Taylor, a Baptist preacher, aged 73, died near Wingo Wednesday afternoon. He is survived by his wife and eight sons and five daughters.

Gov. Willson has the audacity to say that politics will have no influence with him in granting pardons. Somebody might have believed such a stat-ment if he had made it before pardoning Taylor, Powers & Co., but it will be a hard matter to chuck such idle talk into Kentuckians now. So sayeth the Arlington Courier.

WOODMEN CELEBRATE.

Hickman Household No. 5, of Columbian Woodmen, will celebrate its third anniversary by introducing a large class of new members, on Saturday night, Oct. 30, at 8 o'clock.

The charter is still open to that date, and all applicants will be entitled to the low rates and participation in this feast that are received before 7 o'clock on this date.

All members are expected to be present, as extensive preparations are being made for your entertainment.
Come out, eat, drink, be sociable and have a good time.

Yours in truth and works,

J. T. DILLON,

Chairman Committee.

P. S.—D. Wilson will sing "Hannah How's Your Ma."

A BIG SUCCESS.

"Jayville Junction," given by home talent at the Lyric last Friday evening was a decided success. The "troupe" of nearly forty members were drilled by Miss Marie Anton, and all played their parts well.

The title suggests a comedy—the play does more, it makes the audience roar. It is replete with comic situations. All the gawky, silly thing of Jaytown are certainly embodied in the play, with costumes adding the finishing touches.

Lack of space forbids mention of individuals and acts, but those who missed it, have reason for regret.

This entertainment was given for the benefit of the Presbyterian church and gross receipts amounted to $114.50.

Those taking part were:

Allison Tyler, Ferd Maddox, Oce Harris, A. E. Owens, Mitchell Wright, F. S. Moore, C. P. Shumate, Ferd Berendes, Baltzer Dodds, J. W. Roney W. C. Reed, John T. Dillon, Gus Alexander, Edgar Naylor, Mrs. Carl Schmidt, Miss Dottie Davidson, Miss Mabel Wilson, Mrs. E. B. Prather, Miss Bettie DeBow, Mrs. L. P. Elison, Misses Hazel Johnson, Birdie May Rice, Loto Cavitt, Cecil Barnes, Ethel Naylor, Ruth Ellison, Edna Carpenter, Leah Barry, Nell Bondur-ant, Lois Bartlett, Blanche Helm, Ruth Walker, Virginia Prather, Louise Atwood, Lillian Johnston and Mr. D.
B. Wilson.

Let us furnish your home—cash or credit—Home Fur. Co.

FOR SALE: Good horse and buggy.—Mrs. S. D. Luten.

Don't fail to see the Taft views at Helm & Ellison's drug store.

Gen. O. O. Howard, the last of the Union Commanders, died at Burlington, Vt., aged 79 years.

The young folks enjoyed a dance given at the home of H. Buchanan and wife, Wednesday night.

ready taking it.

Geo. Wiseman dressed a 94 pound blue cat fish for a local restaurant Tuesday. It was the largest fish caught here this year.

RUSH CREEK ITEMS.

Miss Lorene Davis is on the sick list this week.

Miss Bessie Johnston has the mumps, we are sorry to state.

Next Sunday being the 5th Sunday it is Rush Creek's day for services.

Mrs. Walter Crostic has been confined to her bed several days with neuralgia.

Clara and Emma Davis, the two pretty little daughters of Mr. Jeff Davis are sick this week.

One more bud to the family wreath at Mr. Caldwell's house. It is a girl Mother and babe are doing well.

Mrs. Luby Hargrove and sister Miss Pearl Johnston, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Johnston.

Dr. Wright has a smile on his face that cannot fade away, for "Unto him a child is born." We congratulate you, Doctor.

Sunday school is on the wane on account of sickness and other minor causes. We should do better than that this lovely weather.

Misses Fannie and Valora Arrington took dinner with Mrs. Walter Crostic, Tuesday. They are both of the Harmony neighborhood.

Brother Walker preached a good sermon the last appointment day and went home with Mr. Jeff Davis and family and enjoyed a good dinner.

After a severe spell of grip we are again permitted to resume our duty as correspondent. Everybody wants to know "what has become of Rush Creek." We are here to stay—until the next time.

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." — Mrs. EMMA LINS, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.
